

SLAYER OF HIS AUNT IS GIVEN 30 YEARS

Eberhardt, Who Lured Women From Vienna, Sentenced in New Jersey.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Gustave Eberhardt, on trial in Hackensack for the murder of his aunt, Mrs. Otilie Eberhardt, whom he lured from Vienna, together with her daughter, Miss Otilie, for the purpose of robbery, today was sentenced to thirty years in State's prison at hard labor.

This was done after Judges Parker and Demarest had conferred with Prosecutor Koester, and Attorney Stagg, representing Eberhardt, had agreed to accept the equivalent of a plea of guilty of murder in the second degree. Lawyer Stagg asked that sentence be postponed, as he wished to present evidence showing Eberhardt's mental condition, and an insane heredity.

Judge Parker declined to allow any delay. He said he had been reluctant to accept the plea of the prisoner, as he fully believed that if the case had gone to the jury there would have been a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree.

No Cause for Clemency.

He could see nothing, he said, that called for clemency, and he imposed the maximum sentence of thirty years.

Eberhardt stood up to receive his sentence, and listened calmly. His aged father and mother were in court, and after sentence had been pronounced, both went over and shook hands with him. Sheriff Brewster then took him back to jail, and he will be sent to the State prison at Trenton.

Eberhardt persuaded his aunt to sell her property in Vienna, Austria, and come to New York with her daughter, sending her glowing descriptions of his own success and of the ease with which money could be made here. He was then employed as a clerk in a grocery store in Vienna.

When his aunt and cousin arrived Eberhardt took them to the Adelphi Hotel, Twenty-third street and Tenth avenue, where he had obtained a room for them.

Aunt Had $2,500.

Mrs. Eberhardt had between $2,500 and $3,000 in cash, which she carried in the bosom of her dress. On July 18, Eberhardt told the two women he was going to take them for a trolley ride in the country.

When they got into New Jersey late in the evening, Eberhardt took them to a lonely place near Rochelle Park and tried to kill them both. He shot Mrs. Eberhardt to death and fired two shots at the young girl. One bullet was deflected by a corset steel, making a slight flesh wound, and the other lodged in her hat. She ran and found refuge in a barn.

Eberhardt stripped the body of his aunt, and possessed himself of her money, which he burnt.

He was in hiding for several days before he was caught.

SMOLENSK, Russia, Sept. 23.—The historic icon of the Smolensk Mother of God, one of the three great miracle-working sacred pictures in Russia, was recently despoiled by a thief of the jewels with which it is incrustured.

The icon, according to legend, was painted by St. Luke and has been preserved in Smolensk since 1101.

OLD SWEETHEART WINS GIRL BACK

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 23.—A telegram from Los Angeles, Cal., cleared up the mystery of the disappearance of Lucy Burrall, aged eighteen, who left home August 6. On August 7 she was to have married Chester Marx, a broker.

A message from Miss Burrall stated she had married Dr. Vincent Clement Adams, a dentist, and a former sweetheart.

Wife of Philadelphia Magnate, Whose Illness Seriously Alarms Her Friends in Newport.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 23.—Friends of Mrs. Joseph E. Widener, leader of the Philadelphia set, and one of the most popular of the young matrons, are alarmed over reports from Switzerland of her serious illness.

Mr. Widener and his father, Peter A. B. Widener, returned a few weeks ago from abroad and came here on their yacht, remaining about a week. At that time, they did not consider Mrs. Widener to be in a serious condition.

They left her in Switzerland, where she was said to be doing well.

Mary Garden May Wed Prince According to Rumors in Paris

Mavrocordato, Russian With Fortune of $5,000,000, Is Ardent Suitor for Hand of the American Singer.

PARIS, Sept. 23.—The rumor is strong in Paris that Mary Garden is to become a princess.

The singer herself does not deny that she is contemplating marriage, although she won't admit it yet.

During the last few weeks, Prince Mavrocordato, a Russian nobleman who lives in Paris, and has a fortune of $5,000,000, has been paying marked attention to Miss Garden. He has a box at the opera every night, she sings, and when she is not on the stage he leaves the theater. He calls at her apartment every day.

Miss Garden and the prince are frequently seen driving together in the Bois, but what really started the rumor is the fact that the prince, who has been satisfied with bachelor apartments for years, is now building a palace near the Trocadero, on the Avenue d'Alma.

When a reporter asked Miss Garden today if she was going to marry the prince, she smiled and said:

"I haven't decided. He is coming to America in January, and I must make up my mind by then. Just now I am too busy to marry anybody."

Prince Mavrocordato, who is a prominent figure in Paris society, is said to possess one of the finest collections in the world of eighteenth century English paintings, including pictures by Reynolds, Romney, and Gainsborough.

HEBREWS PLANNING NEW YEAR FEASTS

Rosh-Hashana Begins Friday Evening With Rejoicing in Home and Temple.

With special services in Hebrew temples throughout the land, and family reunions in the home, Rosh-Hashana, the festival of the New Year, a season of joyousness for Hebrews throughout the world, will be celebrated Friday evening and Saturday. All those of the ancient faith will spend the time in devout thanksgiving, refraining as much as possible from business.

The festival begins at sunset Friday. The reform Hebrews celebrate for twenty-four hours, and the services Friday evening in the Eighth Street Temple will be conducted by Rabbi Abram Simon, pastor of the Hebrew congregation.

The orthodox Hebrews, owing to inaccuracies of the ancient calendars, will celebrate for two days. The sanctification services in the homes will be conducted by the heads of families. The services in the synagogues will be characterized by special music and by the blowing of the ram's horn.

Tom Kipper, Tom Day of Annetment, follows ten days after Rosh-Hashana.
